Silence

Story of Mabel and Alexander Graham Bell
Spriet Stage at the Grand Theatre, London

Saturday, February 3 DT8023

SILENCE brings you the extraordinary story of Alexander Graham Bell, a man who connected people around the world by inventing the telephone. But it was of little use to his wife, Mabel, who was profoundly deaf. Written from Mabel's point of view, the story begins in Nova Scotia as Mabel reflects back on her life with Bell. Together they inspired and challenged each other to become strong, original forces for good. A beautiful (and true) love story about how we communicate. Prior to the performance, an all-you-can-eat buffet lunch is included at the Mandarin.
