The Miracle Worker

Wednesday, April 24

DT9442

We arrive at The Stone Crock for a delicious buffet lunch. Later, a short drive takes us to the St. Jacobs Country Playhouse for the matinee performance of “The Miracle Worker.” This remarkable performance is based on the extraordinary true story of Helen Keller and her determined teacher Annie Sullivan. It tells of a young Helen Keller who has been blind, deaf, and mute since infancy, trapped in a secret, silent world, unable to communicate. Frustrated, lonely, and violent, Helen is in danger of being sent to an institution. In desperation, her parents seek help from the Perkins Institute, which sends them Annie Sullivan to tutor their volatile daughter. Annie soon realizes there is a mind and spirit waiting to be rescued from the dark ... but will she be able to teach her troubled student to communicate and bring her into the world at last? Follow the journey from darkness to light as this powerful saga of perseverance comes to life on stage. After the performance we return to our starting points.
